CAPTION 10 words

Planning Commission and City Council decisions on members' bias

9

QUESTION 20 words

Should the decisions to recuse a councilor or planning commissioner for bias require less than majority vote of the body?

SUMMARY 175 words

The current Municipal Code provides that a member of the hearings body, council or planning commission, shall disclose the substance of any pre-hearing ex parte contacts, state whether the contact has affected their impartiality, participate or abstain accordingly, and that disqualification of a member may be ordered by majority of the members present and voting. This initiative will amend the code to provide that if one or more council or planning commission members vote to reject a statement of being unbiased by a member the member shall not be allowed to vote.
