DETAILS:

The Lane County Sheriff's Office has arrested all five (5) men detained in yesterday's robbery. They were all charged with Robbery 1 and taken to the Lane County Jail last night.

Investigators have recovered a rifle, a stun gun, and several other weapons. Specifics on the robbery are not being released at this time as the on-going investigation continues. It has been determined that the suspects in this robbery were not known to the victim.

The Sheriff's Office is still looking for two (2) other men they believe were involved in this robbery. As of last night investigators believed at least one of the men (Hollembaek) might be in the Ashland area. It is unknown if the two (2) men are traveling together or separate.

Both men are considered to be armed and dangerous. If you see them or have any information on their whereabouts contact the Sheriff's Office at 682-4141.
